

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

Wedding Anniversary Messages

In order to receive a congratulatory message from The Queen for Diamond (60th), 65th and Platinum (70th) weddings and every year thereafter, it is necessary to complete the form overleaf and return it to the Anniversaries Office, Buckingham Palace, London SW1A 1AA. Please DO NOT return this form until three weeks before the celebration date. It is possible to receive a belated message up to six months after the event.

There is no charge for this service, but it will be essential for you to provide this office with documentary proof of the occasion as noted below:-

a) A good photocopy of the celebrants' marriage certificate which will be returned to you. You will receive prompt acknowledgement of your application confirming that a message will be sent and returning all documents to you. Please check that all the details are correct and contact the Anniversaries Officer on 020 7930 4832 if they are not.

You can obtain a certified copy of the marriage certificate from the appropriate General Register Office:

in England or Wales

The General Register Office
Southport
Tel. 0845 603 7788

or in Scotland

The General Register Office
Edinburgh
Tel. 013 1314 4488

or in Northern Ireland

The Anniversaries Clerk
Central Appointments Unit Belfast
Tel. 028 9052 8193

b) Alternatively, if you do not have a copy of the marriage certificate and do not wish to purchase one, you may prefer to telephone the appropriate General Register Office (telephone numbers as above), giving them the celebrants' names, address and the date and place of the marriage. For a small fee they will verify the details in their records and pass the information directly to the Anniversaries Office. If you choose this option it is not necessary to return this form or to send a copy of the marriage certificate.

c) As it is The Queen's custom only to send messages to citizens of one of Her Realms or UK Overseas Territories, those born or married overseas, or who currently live abroad, must provide evidence of their British nationality. This can be in the form of photocopies of the relevant pages of a current British passport.

For residents in Australia, Canada and New Zealand you must apply directly to your Governor-General. For contact details please telephone the Anniversaries Office on 0207 930 4832 or visit the website below.
